Hella Spellman grew all over the world. When she moved to Tallahassee in 1993, she was initially “less than thrilled,” but it only took a few months for her to fall in love with the community and now she could not think of anywhere better to live across the life span! Hella has worked in the aging network for over 25 years – 20 of which have been with Tallahassee Senior Services. In that capacity, she has served in many leadership roles including President of the Florida Association of Senior Centers and with the National Institute of Senior Centers. She has also been very active in many capacities as a volunteer in the community. She is a graduate of Leadership Tallahassee Class 26 and was recognized in 2015 as one of Tallahassee’s 25 Women You Need to Know.
